

The Management Board

Aloysius Rauen

Chief Executive Officer (CEO) and
Member of the Board for Services
Born in Lengerich in 1956
Degree in Mechanical Engineering

From 1983 Aloysius Rauen worked for MBB GmbH in Ottobrunn. In 1992 he was appointed director of the Tornado programme in MBB's aeronautics section and in 1992 he became plant director at Daimler-Benz Aerospace Airbus GmbH. In 1995, Aloysius Rauen took over as president of the Military Aircraft Division of Daimler Chrysler Aerospace AG and, in 1997, became a member of the Management Team before being appointed head of Corporate Strategy at Daimler Chrysler AG in 2000.

At the end of 2000, he moved to EADS and, in 2003, became CEO of EADS Deutschland GmbH and, in 2004, CEO of Eurofighter Jagdflugzeug GmbH. In the same year, Aloysius Rauen was appointed a Member of the Supervisory Board of EADS Deutschland GmbH.

Since 1 May 2009, he has been CEO of Demag Cranes AG and the Member of the Management Board responsible for the Services business segment.

Rainer Beaujean

Member of the Board and
Chief Financial Officer (CFO)
Born in Neuss in 1968
Degree in Business Administration

Rainer Beaujean embarked upon his professional career in Group Accounting at Deutsche Telekom AG in Bonn in 1995. From there, he transferred to the staff of the board member responsible for Finance and Controlling before becoming Head of Controlling, reporting to the board member for the International Subsidiaries and Investments Division. From February 2000, Rainer Beaujean worked as Chief of Staff in the Finance and Controlling Division of the Management Board.

With effect from 1 October 2000, he joined the Management Board of T-Online International AG as CFO. In 2004, he was appointed Chairman of that Company's Management Board. In this position, which he held until 2006, he was responsible, in particular, for the expansion of T-Online and its internationalisation.

Since 1 June 2007, Rainer Beaujean has been a member of the Management Board and has assumed the position of Chief Financial Officer (CFO) of Demag Cranes AG.

Thomas H. Hagen

Member of the Board for
Industrial Cranes and Port Technology
Born in Hof in 1962
Degree in Business Administration

From 1988 to 1992, Thomas H. Hagen worked for Daimler Benz AG in Stuttgart where he was responsible for Sales Controlling for the USA and Canada as well as for Financial Controlling for the Group's subsidiaries.

In 1992, Thomas H. Hagen moved to Asea Brown Boveri AG to become assistant to the Chief Financial Officer and, from 1995 to 1997, he was Chief Financial Officer of the subsidiary ABB Umwelttechnik GmbH and responsible, among other things, for international plant engineering. From 1997 to 1999, Thomas H. Hagen worked for Lahmeyer AG as Executive Vice President for Strategy and Controlling until, in 1999, he moved to Weidmüller AG & Co. KG a. A., where he was initially the Member of the Board responsible for Finance, Controlling, Human Resources and Production. From 2000 to 2006, he was responsible for the successful reorganisation of the group as sole Chief Executive Officer and President.

Since 1 May 2007, Thomas H. Hagen has been a Member of the Management Board of Demag Cranes AG where he is responsible for the Industrial Cranes and Port Technology business segments.

From left to right:

Thomas H. Hagen
Member of the Board for
Industrial Cranes and Port Technology

Aloysius Rauen
Chief Executive Officer (CEO) and
Member of the Board for Services

Rainer Beaujean
Member of the Board and
Chief Financial Officer (CFO)